How you see people determines how you treat them.

Genesis 1:27: The very first thing the Bible says about human beings is that we are made in God's image

John 13:1: "having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end" “The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus.”

John 13:2-5: “Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples’ feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.”

John 13:34–35: "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

“A new command I give you.”

Don't let not liking someone become your excuse for not loving them.

Loving God's children is not an option. It's a command.

Leviticus 19:34: "The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt"

Hebrews 13:3: "Continue to remember those in prison as if you were together with them"

John 9:2: "Who sinned, this man or his parents?"

John 17:20–21: "My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you… so that the world may believe that you have sent me."

We want to be a church that's famous for love.

"Jesus, help me see them the way you see them."

We give because He gave.
We serve because He served.
We can only love because He loved us first.
