

Life Unburdened

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11(Amp): There is a season for everything and a time for every delight and event or purpose under heaven—

² A time to be born and a time to die;

A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted.

³ A time to kill and a time to heal;

A time to tear down and a time to build up.

⁴ A time to weep and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn and a time to dance.

⁵ A time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones;

A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing.

⁶ A time to search and a time to give up as lost;

A time to keep and a time to throw away.

⁷ A time to ^[a]tear apart and a time to sew together;

A time to keep silent and a time to speak.

⁸ A time to love and a time to hate;

A time for war and a time for peace.

⁹ What profit is there for the worker from that in which he labors?

¹⁰ I have seen the task which God has given to the sons of men with which to occupy themselves.

¹¹ He has made everything beautiful and appropriate in its time. He has also planted eternity [a sense of divine purpose] in the human heart [a mysterious longing which nothing under the sun can satisfy, except God]
