GREATEST HITS

02/04/2024 "The Social Jedi"

1. What resonated with you most from Sunday's message? Why?
2. In terms of friends, are you the type of person who sticks to just a few or more of a "more is merrier" type? What are some of the best traits in a friendship?
3. Read Matthew 5:1-16. What do you think salt and light have to do with the statements in Matthew 5:1-12?
4. What does Jesus mean by these metaphors, salt and light? How do they speak to the type of community that His followers are meant to be?
5. Read Isaiah 42:5-7. Compare these verses to Matthew 5:1-12. Where do you see an overlap between the two passages?
6. How does Matthew 5:1-12 fulfill the mission of Isaiah 42:5-7—bringing light, setting others free, and building relationships?
7. These good works are visible to others, they are light. When the world sees them they get a glimpse of God. How does this square with what Jesus says in Matthew 6:1? How can you make sense of these two teachings?
8. How could you see this week's teaching and scriptures affecting your relationships? Is there a specific relationship you could apply these teachings to? What would that look like?
9. What can you do this week to be more intentional about letting the light of God's ways shine in your relationships, workplace or home?
10. Is there something you need to deal with in your heart or your habits that is keeping you from experiencing the power of Matthew 5:1-16? If comfortable, share with the group and add it to your group's prayer list.
