Discussion Questions

1. What stood out from Sunday's message?
2. Think about some popular movies, TV shows, songs, and websites. Based on what you are seeing and reading, what are some current rules in our culture regarding love and dating? Which of them do you agree with? Disagree?
3. If comfortable, take a moment to share a worst date with your group. What made it bad? What were you hoping for?
4. The Bible doesn't talk directly about dating, but how can it help us prepare for dating or romantic relationships?
5. Read chapter one of Song of Songs. In Song of Songs 1:3, the woman states "your name is life perfume". What does she mean by this?
6. Read Proverbs 20:6. Character is vital. What characteristics (beyond the one mentioned in Proverbs) do you look for in a date or mate?
7. If "Character is King", how do you develop character?
8. What are some ways to identify character in others?
9. What aspects of Jesus' character are necessary to thriving relationships?
10. It's been said, become "the person who the person you are looking for is looking for". Who are you becoming? What area do you want to see your character grow over the next four weeks?
